Swap in these Stasher reusable silicone bags for the disposable, bad-for-the-Earth kind. Not only are they pure eye candy, but they also can go in the fridge, microwave and dishwasher (just pop 'em open). ($57 for the Stasher Sandwich Mojave Bundle, stasherbag.com)

The Kiss Instawave 101 Automatic Hair Curler 1" nixes the need for winding and tugging to get great waves. Just slip a section of hair around the tongs, and push the switch to one side. The barrel will rotate, wrapping your hair around it. The result: luscious curls. ($30, kissusa.com)

"This is a game-changer. All I do is section off my long hair. It takes care of the rest."

—Maricar Santos, Working Mother's Associate Editor

In single-serve packages of just 90 calories each, Life's Grape Dark Chocolate Dipped Vine-Dried Grapes are decadent treats that won't make your work pants too tight. ($14 for a 12-pack, lifesgrape.com)

THEY'RE BACK

Ready to retire your handbag or backpack? Fanny packs (aka belt bags) are a great alternative when you can travel lighter. Here are three we love.

👉 Do you have your keys and cell? That won't ever be a question with this I.F.A. Fanny Pack. It's see-through and so smart. ($14, bando.com)

👉👉 With two main zip compartments, the so-sporty State Bags Webster Fanny Pack makes it easier to find what you need fast. ($75, statebags.com)

👉👉👉 This chic Leatherology Meadow Mini Belt Bag is the perfect accent to any outfit, and includes card slots, so you can ditch the wallet. ($145, leatherology.com)
